

Artist: Shaun Andrew Hays

A.K.A.: Chicago Chalk Champ (Since 2012)

Speed Artist Master, Freehand Anamorphic Technique, Keynote Presenter and Author

Shaun Hays has been performing live art to millions since 2002. His art has been featured in Australia, Egypt, the United Kingdom and practically everywhere in America.

Typically seen in public doing chalk renderings, Shaun is also skilled in many forms of artistic expression. In 2014, he decided to branch out into sculpture and in 2015 has been returning to graphite and ink renderings as well.

2017 promises to be a very creative year for Shaun, working with the John G. Shedd Aquarium and Navy Pier in April, launching a new Christian Artists Conference, a possible ministry tour in Ireland and Wales, Uganda, Haiti and more. That's not to mention the summer festivals he and his wife, Faith and Son, Ethan will travel to in order to entertain crowds with art.
